OVERVIEW

New ideas should be encouraged and protected.

Fanny is a Partner of the Intellectual Property Department.

She specialises in trade mark protection in Hong Kong and other jurisdictions around the world. She handles trade mark filings and prosecution including drafting submissions and evidence, and attending hearings conducted in the Trade Marks Registry. Fanny manages international and regional trade mark portfolios for many multinational clients. Her practice includes complex trade mark disputes including trade mark opposition, invalidation and revocation matters. She also assists clients on negotiations of co-existence agreements in connection with trade mark rights, and conducts due diligence on IP transactions.

She also handles estate and succession planning, Will drafting, Enduring Power of Attorney, Advance Medical Directive, and probate applications.
