OVERVIEW

Insist on thorough analysis in preparation of cases and to give practical strategic advice to clients.

Nam joined Robertsons as a trainee solicitor and became a Partner of the firm in 2009.

Nam specialises in Commercial Dispute Resolution including banking claims, shareholders dispute, contractual dispute, construction cases and contentious probate cases. She also has considerable experience in handling regulatory matters including disciplinary proceedings and related civil claims and criminal prosecution instituted by regulatory authorities.

She was appointed as an Attesting Officer by the Ministry of Justice of the People's Republic of China in 2016. In this role, she provides attestation services to clients by preparing attestation documentation to certify legal acts, facts and instruments with legal effect in Hong Kong, to be utilised in the PRC.

She is one of the contributing editors of the Hong Kong Civil Procedure publication (also known as the White Book), which is trusted for its authority and commentary and is relied upon by judges and lawyers alike for guidance on Civil Procedure in legal proceedings in Hong Kong.

She is also a part time tutor at the School of Law, City University of Hong Kong, where she teaches one of the core courses of the PCLL Programme, Civil Litigation Practice.

Nam also served as a Temporary Deputy Registrar of the District Court from 4 December to 29 December 2023.

Nam also served as a Deputy Presiding Officer of the Labour Tribunal from 9 December 2024 to 10 January 2025 and from 26 May 2025 to 4 July 2025.
